

PAMELA HAMEL & GEORGE HAMEL, JR.

Vintners

George and Pam lived in Virginia and Florida before settling in the San Francisco Bay Area in 1996. Ten years later, they bought a house in Kenwood in Sonoma Valley and began growing grapes on an acre vineyard parcel behind their home. George and Pam gradually added two more acres of vineyards to the estate, which produced its first 290 cases of Cabernet Sauvignon in 2006. Today, the house is still George and Pam's home, and the Hamel wine journey continues under their stewardship.
